Details

The Oztent Telescopic Spreader Ridge Pole offers lightweight functionality not only to your Oztent RV set-up but also to many camping applications such as dome tent awnings and tarp shelters.

Made of alloy, the adjustment and locking mechanism on the Oztent Alloy poles have a smooth and positive action and feature rounded plastic ends that are friendly on tent fabrics. It also offers some flex and features an eyelet that's suitable for standard upright pole spigots. Grab a Telescopic Spreader Ridge Pole from Oztent for your next adventure with the RV, tent or tarp.
