Details

Even plusher than the iconic original, the Swiss-designed MegaMat Max 15 Duo LW+ from Exped provides another level of camping comfort for two. Providing 50% more thickness than the original MegaMat, the Max 15 Duo has 15cm of air-core channel foam to cradle your whole body. It has a 50 denier stretch top fabric with 3D constructed vertical sidewalls that gives you comfort right to the edges of the mat, just like your own bed at home. With an R-Value of 10.6, this mat provides serious insulation to keep you cosier when sleeping in cold conditions. The Max 15 Duo is easy to inflate and deflate as it has an extra-large valve, and it comes with a top-loading stuff sack so that you can carry it over your shoulder and transport it with ease. Finished off with a repair kit, mini pump for top-ups, and backed by a 5-year warranty - the MegaMat Max 15 Duo LW+ from Exped is a luxurious addition to your sleeping set up. Double size mat 50% thicker than original MegaMat. ASTM F3340-18 R-Value: 10.6. Core-channelled foam cradles body for comfort. 50D stretch fabric top. Vertical sidewalls 3-D construction for edge-to-edge comfort. Extra-large deflation valve ensures fast deflation. Top-loading SideWinder stuff sack for easy packing and carrying. Mini Pump and repair kit included.
