Details

The spacious, freestanding Outbreak 1550 Swag from 23ZERO will keep you comfortable every night on your touring expeditions. The Outbreak 1550 is constructed from a 400gsm tightly woven and proofed canvas which provides a durable shelter to rest your head in. This swag has enough room for two, with enough space left over for your gear. Fully seam-sealed for protection, the Outbreak has a heavy-duty HF welded PVC bucket floor which shields you from the ground up. For ventilation, there is a super-fine mesh window at each end with zip-down canvas walls for wet conditions. To keep you comfy as you sleep, this swag features a 70mm hi-density thick foam mattress with a poly-cotton cover. The 4-way entry makes it super easy to get in and out of, with plenty of room for your essentials, and this swag also provides scenic 360-degree views. For roomy and reliable shelter every night on your travels, you can depend on the Outbreak 1550 Swag from 23ZERO. 1500mm wide mattress Large freestanding design Fit two adults with room for extra gear Panoramic 360-degree views Convenient 4-way entry Mesh windows at each end with zip-down canvas walls Durable 400gsm proofed poly-cotton blend canvas Fully seam-sealed 70mm high-density mattress with polycotton cover HF welded PVC bucket floor Carry bag and peg bag included
