Details

If your rain jacket is starting to absorb water, all it needs is a refresh with the TX Direct Spray-On from Nikwax and it'll be ready for another drizzly day of adventure.

This spray has been designed for waterproof yet breathable garments, so it prevents water absorption while allowing moisture from sweat to pass through. It's also really easy to use, water-based, non-hazardous and friendly on the environment.

When your wet weather clothing isn't performing as it used to, the TX Direct Spray-On from Nikwax will revive its water repellency.

For waterproofing breathable waterproof clothing prevents the fabric from absorbing water while maintaining breathability
Water-based, non-aerosol, non-hazardous and environmentally friendly
For best results, clean your garment first with separately available Tech Wash
